

China Zigen won the highest level 4A rank for social organizations as rated by Ministry of Civil Affairs of P.R.C

According to The Regulations for Rating Social Organizations and The Rules to Implement the Rating of National Social Organizations, after full deliberation in the plenary session, Commission on the Rating of National Social Organizations decides to grant the highest level – 4A rank for National Social Service Organizations to China Zigen Rural Education and Development Association.

Translation of the certificate:

(Logo) Certificate of rankings of Chinese Social organizations

Certificate No.: She Ping Gong Zi [2013] Di 002 Hao

This is to certify that China Zigen Rural Education and Development Association has been rated as the level 4A Social Organization.

(Effective date: 2013-2018)

Ministry of Civil Affairs of Peoples' Republic of China

(Seal)

Year 2013

Additional information:

The rating considerations include basic requirement, internal management, working efficiency and public opinion.

The method of evaluation clearly specifies the procedure includes items as making public announcements, evaluation of qualifications, onsite inspections, review of the final evaluation and public awarding.

There are five ranks in the rating. According to the regulation, those social organizations rated 3A and above may be granted in preference certain governmental function authorizations, receive government purchase service and government incentives; according to regulations, Social Service Organizations include Foundations, Charitable Organizations rated 3A or above may apply for tax exemption for charitable donations; those with a rating of 4A or above may qualify for simplified yearly inspection procedure.